SKULAS - By WestWorld & Donald Sinkiewicz You are the great space adventurer, George P Shagnasty. You have landed on the planet Skulas looking for a cool drink. There are 20 levels, each with a multitude of traps, treasure, spells and creatures. George has a gun but the natives have a bigger gun. Watch Out!! If George gets killed he can start the level over again. Game play can be saved and restored. First in a series.
