A DOOM clone where instead of guns you throw water balloons, bars of soap and the like at hordes of filthy animals found in places like trailer parks and sewers. The main antagonist of the game is dirty a$$hole named Bob the Slob and you must defeat him before his influence perpetuates further to a point of everlasting filthiness. Included is the original CD-ROM image. Enjoy!

<https://vetusware.com/download/Onesimus%20-%20A%20Quest%20For%20Freedom%201.5/?id=16430>

You are Onesimus, a slave of Philemon. You want to escape from slavery and be free. For freedom you must go to Rome. There you must find the apostle Paul. He will teach you how to become a Christian. Only then will you discover true freedom. This game uses the Jill of the Jungle engine. Just like in that game you must find keys to open doors, apples to maintain your health and knives to ward off dangerous animals. Included is the full installation folder as well as the CDROM image if you want to view the installation setup.
