This is IBM APL programming language. This won't work in Dosbox or DosBox-X. Use with an PC/XT emulator (pce, pcem, picoxt, ect.) or a virtual machine running Dos. See the readme file for more info on what Dos to use. Comes with a floppy image, directory with contents of the floppy image, and the APL user manual. Do read the manual as you won't get far without it. Type "off to get out of APL. On screen you'll see)OFF.

Underhill 2.2

It's a British text adventure game or interacive fiction as it's called today. It appears to be heavily influenced by Infocom's Zork 1.
